Animation around the world

Create your own animation using your own story based on issues such as climate change, fairtrade, food, refugees, Rokeya day and water.

You will learn how to plan and build stories and characters, by the end; you will have produce and edit the final animation.

Teachers to learn how to prepare their students to plan and develop storyboards and create backdrops and characters from their stories and to use ICT to animate and edit the final production.
